NORTH CAROLINA COLLEGE FOR NEGROES
DURHAM, NORTH CAROLINA

DURHAM—"THE BULL CITY"

Location—Durham is situated in the geographical center of North Carolina, a few miles north of the center of population of the state. Its terrain is slightly rolling and well drained.

All roads lead to Durham, North Carolina, because it is the home of :

The North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company, The Bankers Fire Insurance Company, The Mechanics & Farmers Bank, The North Carolina College for Negroes, Durham Colored Library, The Carolina Times, The Union Insurance & Realty Company, Mutual Insurance Company, The Biltmore Hotel, Garrett's Biltmore Drug Store, Bull City Drug Store, Hayti Drug Store, and the Mutual Building & Loan Association.

Churches—Eighty-six, representing 12 denominations. Value of property, $2,681,832.00.

Industry—Chief industry of city, manufacturing. Eighty-eight manufacturing establishments, employing 13,350, and paying wages of $13,000,000 annually. Value of products, $160,336,003. Principal manufactured products: cigarettes, smoking tobacco, hosiery, sheets and pillow cases, gingham, flour and proprietary medicine. The large tobacco industries here manufacture such well known brands as Duke's Mixture, Bull Durham Smoking Tobacco, and a great many brands of cigarettes, including the famous Chesterfield and Lucky Strike, and fifteen brands of Turkish cigarettes. Durham manufactures twenty-four per cent of all the cigarettes made in the United States.

Hospitals—Four with total of eight hundred and twenty beds. Lincoln Hospital (public, colored), Watts Hospital (public, white), Duke University Hospital, McPherson Hospital (private—eye, ear, nose and throat).

Education—North Carolina College for Negroes, Duke University, Southern Conservatory of Music, Croft Secretarial School, Durham College of Commerce, Kennedy's Commercial School.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Fifty years have been spent in building the oldest and one of the most scientific Negro Medical Organizations in the world. The destiny of the Old North State Medical, Dental and Pharmaceutical Society cannot be limited. It shall ever strive to enlarge men's vision, to deepen their insight, to broaden their experience, to purify and enrich their lives. It must keep step with the tide and progress in the allied branches of medicine, rolling onward and upward acquiring greater momentum as its surges beat forward.

JOHN WILTON BLACK, D.D.S.

President.
